OUR SPACES

Le Salon

An original, artistic space featuring wood paneled walls, a glittering chandelier and dazzling skylight create an elegant atmosphere highly conducive to private dinners or intimate receptions.

Lantern Room

The Lantern room is a technological wonder featuring digital art externally and state of the art acoustics internally, perfect for a ceremony.

Rossy room

The Rossy room with its bright, natural light and views of parliament and the Peace Tower make this room a popular choice for small weddings and ceremonies.

O'Born Room

The most sought-after room in the downtown core, with sky high ceilings, floor to ceiling glass walls and stunning views of Ottawa's most beautiful and historic sites. This space will wow your guests and create lasting memories.

Canada Room

Your sense of awe will be thoroughly awakened as you climb the grand staircase to the Canada Room. With breathtaking views of the Rideau Canal – a UNESCO world heritage site - the Canada room is the ideal space for weddings any size, up to 400 guests.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Q. Does the National Arts Centre host ceremonies?

We would be delighted to host your marriage ceremony, followed by your reception. Available ceremony locations can be discussed, depending on your reception room and number of expected guests. The room rental fee is $850. Ceremonies are not permitted in the NAC public spaces, including the Wood Terrace.

Q. What items are not included in the wedding package?

The following items are not part of the wedding package: photographers, flowers, DJ services, backdrops, photo booths, officiant, wedding cake, decor to name just a few. We would be pleased to provide you with a list of qualified Ottawa wedding suppliers.

Q. Is there a room rental charge?

Yes, there is a room rental charge. Rental fees vary depending on the time of year and the food and beverage revenues. Rental fees for your desired space can be discussed with the Meetings and Events team.

Q. Is there a minimum revenue required per event space?

Yes, there is a minimum amount of revenue required. Food and beverage minimums vary depending on the season. Minimum revenues for your desired space can be discussed with the Meetings and Events team.

Q. Is there a minimum number of guests required for a package?

Our wedding packages are designed for groups of 80 people or more. For groups between 40 and 79 guests, a $15 surcharge per person is applicable.

Q. Who will be managing my wedding details? Can I meet them?

Your assigned Catering Sales Manager works with you from the first phone call to final details. On the day of the wedding, a Banquet Captain oversees your reception. This person will introduce themselves to you, or the assigned site contact, and is your location contact until the end of the event. Note that the Banquet Captain is not a `day of `wedding planner and should assign tasks other than your reception and evening service to a family member or a hired wedding planner.
